I have the honour to ask for a ruling on the disposal of discarded punkahs and lamps formerly in use in Holy Trinity church, Bellary. The Ecclesiastical Rules do not make it clear whether these articles may be treated as the property of the congregation or should either be returned to store or sold, and the proceeds credited to Government. I presume, however, if the lamps are the property of the congregation, the Chaplain and Trustees have power to deal with them at their discretion.

SIR,

With reference to your endorsement No. 44026-Eccl. 1. dated 21-12-1934 on the subject indicated above, I have the honour to state that presumably the old punkahs and lamps referred to were originally supplied by Government and discarded on the installation of electric lights and fans sanctioned in G.O.No. 1459 M.S.W dated 16-5-1930. If so, they are the sole property of Government even though a portion of their cost might have been originally contributed by private persons, Vide [illegible] 26 part V. of the Ecclesiastical Rules. and they are no longer of any use in the Church, they may be disposed of by the P.W.D. and the sale proceeds credited to Government.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient Servant.

Holy Trinity Church, Bellary — Old punkahs and lamps — disposal of — Ref. letter from the Ven'ble the Archdeacon No. 24 dt 12-12-34

The Venerable the Archdeacon of Madras is informed that, with reference to Rule 26 of Part V of the Ecclesiastical Rules, the old punkahs and lamps referred to should be treated as the property of Govt, unless it can be shown that they were originally purchased entirely from private funds. If they were not so purchased, they may be disposed of by the P.W.D and the sale proceeds credited to Govt.
